

ASN Lifestyle Magazine and SDC.com Announce Partnership to Improve Adult Education

May 1, 2019 (Cary, North Carolina) - The world's leading lifestyle magazine and the world's largest sex-education platform have partnered to provide added value to their respective and collective audiences.

ASN Lifestyle Magazine and SDC.com announced their collaboration, intended to combine their resources to broaden and enhance the reach of their respective networks, including people within ethically non-monogamous lifestyles, as well as curious individuals who are seeking to learn about sexuality and relationships.

SDC.com is the world's largest international lifestyle dating site, encompassing over three million members worldwide. In 2018, SDC expanded their brand as Seek, Discover, Create and introduced a media platform focused on educational videos, articles and podcasts from leading professionals in sexual health and relationships, which are also available in five different languages.

ASN (Adult Social Network) is the only magazine tailored for the non-monogamy lifestyle, providing adult entertainment, practical tips, relationship advice and interviews from people of interest and experts within the community.

"We're thrilled to be working with SDC," said Michael Ramos, co-founder of ASN Lifestyle Entertainment. "We are committed to the lifestyle community to promote healthy living and experiences, and we know this union with SDC will help us accomplish our mission."

Both groups recognize a pressing need for adults to have access to reliable resources about relationships and health. With their new association, SDC and ASN can fuse their strengths to fulfill their visions of helping educate adults and connecting them with other like-minded individuals.

"Our goal is to make this expert knowledge accessible for adults around the world. The more we know, the more we can make informed and healthy choices in our personal lives," says Dave from SDC.

"Working with ASN means sharing this information with even more people who can benefit this way."

Founded in 2014 by Michael and Sheri Ramos, ASN Lifestyle Entertainment is a partner of the National Coalition for Sexual Freedom (NCSF). ASN Lifestyle Magazine is a taste-maker, an arbiter of style, and are at the forefront of trends in social behavior, political, sexual and economic freedom.

Since 1999, SDC.com has been established as the world's foremost lifestyle dating platform. Their website now features educational articles, videos and podcasts about sexuality, relationships and health from leading international experts.
